

SHOW RULES

Veterinary conditions accepting cats to take part in the show:

1. Cats must be healthy, clean and in good condition, prepared to the show, vaccinated against cats virus diseases (cat's flu, panleucopenia etc.) as well as against Rabies, no later than one month before the cat show (first vaccination) or must have next vaccination valid. Rabies vaccination is obligatory also for kittens in the age of six months. During veterinary control it's obligatory to show the vaccination book or cat's passport as well as veterinary health certificate issued 3-1 days before the show. Ill cats won't be accepted without reimbursement.

2. All cats taking part in the cat show must be appicated in their classes to the catalogue. This concerns also all kittens including kittens for sale during the show. Each cat should obligatory has identification microchip. Kittens taking part in the cat show must also have microchip. Kittens must have passport or vaccination book with microchip number. Microchips will be checked in the entrance to the show. All cats must have their claws cutted. White cats must have veterinary certificate concerning ears' test.

Rules:

1. The exhibitor is required to verify the accuracy of the alert cat in the show catalogue and in the secretariat of the exhibition, before assessing the cat, make a correction of incorrect alert, in order to make changes to its documentation.

2. Exhibitors can present their cats to the judge, holding them in evaluating except the BIS competition. Do not bring the cat to the judge after it's called three times will disqualify the cat and do not leave the cat to assess at a later date without reimbursement fee for the exhibition brought

3. Duty of exhibitor is to check the correctness of the certificate issued by a judge in accordance with the needs of the cat and in the event of non-compliance received immediate intervention to make the assessment in court either personal or by the secretariat of the exhibition. After evaluation of the cat and the exhibition it will not be possible to make any amendments in the evaluation of the cat.

4. If you already have a certificate for the cat in the same class from a judge evaluating a cat, you should ask the judge to confirm this assessment by another judge, so that the three reviews in the class were given by three different judges.

5. Exhibitors are reminded of the obligation to report promptly to the Secretariat of any changes to the class exhibition of the cat after receiving the certificate on the first day of the exhibition.

6. All changes made in the color of the cat during its evaluation, and not before the show must go the way of oficial colour change. Changing the color of the cat in the process of assessment should be mandatory be reported to the secretariat of the exhibition which will issue the required documentation cat changing the color of the cat.

7. Cats must stay in decorated cage until the end of the exhibition. Prior to leave the exhibition will invalidate the exhibition and the exhibited cats do not issue diplomas and evaluations of his cats, without the right to refund the fee for the exhibition
8. The exhibitor is responsible for maintaining the exhibition of his cat. The Exhibitor is obliged to repair the damage done to the exhibition by his cat, yourself or family participating in the exhibition. Exhibitors and their families are asked to be cultural and quiet during the exhibition in order to ensure peaceful conditions for the cats
9. At the end of the exhibition on the second day, the diplomas will be issued at the Registry of the exhibition after the fold of all the cages used by exhibitors
10. For a large number of exhibitors and their families, may run out of chairs - in which case the chair would only receive the exhibitor listed in the catalogue
11. The Exhibitor is obliged to maintain cleanliness and order in the exhibition as well as in the area adjacent to Hall
12. At the exhibition hall smoke is completely avoided. During the exhibition it's completely avoided to drink alcohol drinks. Person who finds the abuse of alcohol will be forced to leave the exhibition without refund of fees for the exhibition brought a variation of the exhibitor will be disqualified
13. Submitting cat's registration form to the exhibition's organizer is tantamount to accepting the conditions of these Rules.

Polski Związek Felinologiczny

<http://www.pzf.pl>

Warsaw, 2011